

Union May Strike GM, Chrysler

By LOWELL MCKINGAN
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — The president of the United Auto Workers takes his union's new contract demands today to the Chrysler Corp.—designated along with General Motors as a strike target—after announcing Ford Motor Co. is free of a walkout threat this year.

President Leonard Woodcock said Wednesday the union will strike either GM or Chrysler—possibly both—unless a contract settlement is reached before current three-year pacts expire at midnight Sept. 14.

A strike at GM would give Ford a great marketing edge with its subcompact Pinto which goes on sale Sept. 11. The Chevrolet Vega goes on sale the day before, but a strike would quickly dry up the supply of some 25,000 GM subcompacts, perhaps within a day or two.

Woodcock said at a news conference one reason Ford—object of the last UAW strike in 1967—was excluded as a target was so that at least one American automaker would be building subcompacts in numbers to meet the challenge of imported cars. Chrysler does not presently produce a subcompact.

Woodcock said he would tell top Chrysler negotiators today that their contract offer—which included a wage hike the company claimed totaled 13.5 percent over three years—was a virtual insult. Similar offers were made by GM and Ford.

"We don't give a damn if we run through the strike fund," Woodcock told cheering representatives of Chrysler's rank and file. "We can strike without money as we did in the past."

If General Motors is struck, the union's strike fund of $120 million would be exhausted in about seven weeks. For a strike at Chrysler, the fund could last some 30 weeks. Current strike benefits are $30 to $40 a week depending on family size.

Some industry observers saw the union maneuvering as a pressure tactic aimed primarily at Chrysler, which has been operating in the black for the last five months after two losing quarters.

GM has not been closed by a nationwide strike since 1946.

Woodcock explained that GM was a target this time because it was "the chief architect" of the proposals made to the union Tuesday.

Man Charged With Murder of Trusty

TUCKER INTERMEDIATE REFORMATORY, Ark. (AP)—Thomas Mitchell Priddy, 22, of Blytheville was charged Wednesday with second-degree murder of a fellow trusty at Tucker Intermediate Reformatory.

Correction Commissioner C. Robert Sarver said the charge was filed against Priddy in the shooting death of Walter Harvey, 27, of Hot Springs, at the reformatory Monday.

Harvey was shot with a .38-caliber pistol during an argument, Sarver said.

Priddy was serving a 21-year sentence for robbery, grand larceny, burglary and parole violation in Hot Spring County.

Harvey was a trusty over the dog kennels. Priddy was assistant to Harvey.

Drug Usage Widespread Among Workers

By BRENNAN RILEY
Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Drug usage is so widespread among both white and blue-collar workers that it does little good to fire them, two researchers say. Their replacements may have a similar problem.

"Drugs are often a way of life for young executives," Carol Kurts, a New York drug expert, told a workshop for representatives of 50 San Francisco area firms Wednesday.

She and Dr. Stephen Pittel of San Francisco's Mt. Zion Hospital, who has done three years of drug research in the Haight-Ashbury district, said companies need to up programs to help workers.

SHARON THOMASON

MAGNOLIA, Ark.—Mrs. Sharon F. Thomason of Magnolia has been appointed half-time instructor in French at Southern State College for 1970-71. Dr. George L. Sixbey, chairman of the Division of Humanities, has announced.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fielding of Hope, Mrs. Thomason earned her bachelor of arts degree from Ouachita Baptist University and her master of arts from the University of Arkansas.

A member of the Arkansas and National Education Associations, the Texas State Teachers Association and Delta Kappa Gamma, she taught at North Little Rock High School from 1965-1967 and for the Richardson, Tex. Independent School District from 1968-70 while her husband was attending the Southern Methodist University School of Law.

Mrs. Thomason is married to Byron Thomason of Magnolia, who received his law degree in May and has joined his father, A.A. Thomason, in the practice of law at Magnolia.

"Any company that hires a large number of young employees, and has a high turnover rate, will have this problem," Miss Kurts said.

Miss Kurts said her work in New York with 60 major corporations and further research throughout the eastern United States revealed a 20 per cent impairment of employee efficiency because of the use of such drugs as marijuana, LSD, heroin, amphetamines and barbiturates as well as nicotine and alcohol.

Hoffa May Be Squeezed Out by Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early maneuverings for the Teamsters convention next year indicate the union's imprisoned president, James R. Hoffa, may finally be squeezed out.

Acting Teamsters President Frank E. Fitzsimmons, Hoffa's hand-picked stand-in, is letting it be known that he will run for the $100,000-a-year presidency of the 2 million member union—the world's largest—if Hoffa is "unavailable."

Hoffa is not likely to be available. He is serving an eight-year sentence for jury tampering in the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., still appealing a five-year mail fraud conviction, and already has been turned down once for parole.

The betting in the union is that Hoffa will have a slim chance of succeeding when he comes up for parole again in March, probably his last chance to win freedom before the Teamsters presidential election at their convention in Miami Beach next July.

Two of the most powerful of the union's 12 vice presidents have already pledged Fitzsimmons their support for him to run for president in his own right, inside sources said. The two are Elmer Mohn, who heads the union's West Coast division, and Murray W. (Dusty) Miller, head of the Teamsters Southern Conference.

Some sources speculate that Hoffa could win reelection even if he is still in prison, but Mohn and Miller are reliably reported to be opposed to letting him run.

A source close to Fitzsimmons said either Hoffa or Fitzsimmons could easily win election, but the decision on who the candidate will be is most likely to be made among the powerful vice presidents on the union's ruling Executive Board.

A move to nominate a still jailed Hoffa is likely to split the board and turn the election into a wide-open fight, a prospect that Teamsters leaders are likely to want to avoid.

Four Sought for University Bombing

By JIM LUTHER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A nationwide search has been launched for four young men charged in the bombing of the Army Mathematics Research Center at Madison, Wis. One man died and three were injured in the blast.

One of the four charged in the Aug. 24 bombing was linked by the FBI to Students for a Democratic Society. Three had attended the University of Wisconsin where the research center was located. The fourth was identified as a high school dropout.

The FBI said fugitive warrants and charges of sabotage, destruction of government property and conspiracy have been filed against Karleton Lewis Armstrong, 22; his brother, Dwight Alan Armstrong, 19; David Sylvan Fine, 18, and Leo Frederick Burt, 22.

An FBI agent investigating the blast filed an affidavit Wednesday in Madison, saying the Armstrong brothers had told a friend they had a large cache of explosives and planned a series of bombings.

In the affidavit, agent George P. Baxtrum Jr. said the Armstrongs told the friend they were responsible for the Jan. 1 bombing of the Badger Army Ammunitions Plant. Authorities said an undetonated bomb was found on the grounds of the ammo plant.

Karleton Armstrong rented a trailer and bought 100 gallons of gasoline Aug. 16, the agent quoted a Madison service station employee as saying. According to the document, another man reported the elder brother purchased 1,700 pounds of nitrogen fertilizer three days later.

The fertilizer and gasoline could be combined to make an explosive device.

Baxtrum said the four men charged were stopped by police shortly after the research center was bombed, but were allowed to pass. A friend of the four received a letter postmarked Aug. 28 in which they said they were in New York City en route to Canada.

The FBI said the university's Sterling Hall, in which the government research center was located, "for several years has been the target for demonstration activity by radical groups led by the Students for a Democratic Society which protested it

Agnew Praised as a True Peacemaker

By PAUL W. HARVEY JR.
Associated Press Writer

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Members of the American Legion, praised by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew as the nation's true peace-makers, end their national convention today.

Legionnaires hear a speech by Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., present Fourth Estate awards and elect officers in concluding their 52nd national conclave.

The Fourth Estate awards go to James G. Stahlman, president and publisher of the Nashville Banner, and Jenkin Lloyd Jones, editor and publisher of the Tulsa Tribune.

Agnew, who returned this week from a tour of five Asian nations, flew into Portland from San Clemente, Calif., Wednesday, stayed an hour to address the legion, then left for Austin, Tex., where he reported on Southeast Asia to former President Lyndon B. Johnson. He continued on to Washington, D.C.

"The spirit the legion represents is what has kept America strong—and what has kept the peace," Agnew said.

"The real peace lobby today is composed of those who maintain the peace, not those who disturb it."

As he spoke in Memorial Coliseum, about 300 persons organized by the People's Army Jamboree marched outside, carrying signs that demanded an end to the war in Southeast Asia and to racism in the United States.

The jamboree was organized to protest the presence in Portland of the legion and for five days staged seminars and parades.

In his talk to the legionnaires, Agnew said:

"We have a First Amendment that guarantees the right of free speech and free assembly—but smashing windows, burning offices, assaulting people in the streets, are not acts of speech or assembly."

Dale Bumpers will be a Governor whose judgement you can trust

Good government, like good business, demands good judgment. A cool head under pressure can prevent serious problems. The majority of the people in Arkansas are tired of the old guard's divisive tactics, pitting friend against friend and neighbor against neighbor.

It's time for a change to something better. Your governor must make decisions that will be in the best interest of the people, and not to his political advantage. September 8 can bring a new day to Arkansas. You can elect a man who will give Arkansas the leadership it deserves . . . a man who will lead, not follow . . . a man who will unify, not divide . . . a man who will work to produce more and better jobs, new industry, develop a program of prison reform, offer tax equity, improve our educational system and enforce the laws of our state. Dale Bumpers will bring dignity and respect to the highest office in the state. Vote for Dale Bumpers . . . and on September 8 and November 3 we'll win a victory for everyone in Arkansas.

Elect Dale Bumpers governor . . . let's get our state together!

MRS. HARLAN ZIEGLER

The Garland Garden in Washington, Arkansas, was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Betty O'Neal and Harlan Ziegler. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. O'Neal of Hope, and Mr. and Mrs. George N. Ziegler of Crescent City, California.

Rev. Norris Steele, Minister of First United Methodist Church of Hope, performed the ceremony. Music was presented by David Pearson, vocalist, and Mrs. Joe Eason, accompanist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over peau de sole. The high neckline and A line skirt featured Venise lace threaded with satin ribbon. Her veil of illusion was held by a bow of Venise lace. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift from the groom. She carried a cascade of pink Sensation roses and daisies. Her honor attendant was Miss Margaret Etter of Washington. She wore a pink dotted swiss gown identical to the bride's gown. Nanette Burke was flower girl.

Captain Max Payne of Lawton,

Oklahoma, was best man. Ushers were Joe Eason of Hope and L. Dudley Smith of Fort Sill.

A reception followed at the Block-Catts House in Washington.

Following a trip to Colorado and Canada, the couple will be at home in Lawton, Oklahoma, where Chief Warrant Officer Ziegler is stationed.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Ziegler of Crescent City, California, entertained at the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Heritage House for the wedding party of their son, Harlan, and Betty O'Neal who were married Saturday evening. The table for twenty guest was centered with an arrangement of pink roses and English ivy.

The couple chose at this time to present gifts to their attendants.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

THIRD CHILD GETS THE LEAVINGS

Dear Helen:
I'm the third daughter. My sisters had big weddings with lots of gifts, and I found out later that neither of them sent thank-you notes. Really, they're spoiled brats.

It's only human nature that people will stop giving gifts to a family that doesn't appreciate them. When I graduated from high school, I only received a few presents, compared with my sisters' loot. Same reason, probably.

Now I'm going to be married and I know it will be the same. I'm almost afraid to plan a big wedding for fear no one will come. I probably won't get enough presents to make it worthwhile.

Is there any way to let people know I'm not like my sisters and I'll thank them for wedding gifts? —ABOUT TO BE SLIGHTED AGAIN
Dear ATBSA:

We-ell, you can't exactly add to the invitations, "P.S. I'm very prompt about thank-you notes."

If you're "the different one" friends and relatives may be generous in their response, but if you're planning a big wedding only because the loot will "make it worthwhile," I'd suggest an elopement instead. A practical-minded gal like you would scarcely enjoy an affair that might not break even. —H.
Dear Helen:

I'm 16 and have two sisters and two brothers.

When my oldest brother was born my parents took pictures galore. They bought him everything. Then my older sister got almost the same plush treatment. Two years later I came along, and my folks only took a couple of pictures. I've had to wear hand-me-downs all my life.

When my sister went to her senior prom a big fuss was made. After her graduation, we celebrated with a dinner out. Dad stood in the aisle and photographed the whole ceremony.

This year it was my turn. You guess it: Ho-hum time. No pictures for my prom. I got a new dress only because my sister's wouldn't fit. On my graduation, Dad took only one picture which didn't turn out. Afterwards, we went to dinner, but he didn't join us.

What am I, a reject? —LONELY AND LEFT OUT
Dear Lonely:

No, Honey, you're a repetition—a victim of the second time around "blahs" which parents often show without even knowing it. They love you just as much, but only the "first" of a first-born son or daughter have the special newness that turns a father into a fatuous photographer and a mother into sentimental jelly.

You won't fully understand this until you have several children of your own. And then I hope you look back to the slights YOU felt, and make sure each grows up aware that he is as important as the first. —H.
(P.S. Our youngest, Sue, reading over my shoulder, says if I don't fix hamburgers and fries for dinner she will tell the world about the Bottel family albums—pictures by the thousands of our No. 1 son; hundreds of our No. 2; dozens of our next-to-last daughter; and—well, excuse me while I go shop for buns and mustard. —H.)

Cancer Claims Coach Vince Lombardi

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vince Lombardi, Washington Redskins coach and onetime ruler of a football dynasty with the Green Bay Packers, died today of cancer. He was 57.

A spokesman at Georgetown University Hospital said Lombardi succumbed at 7:12 a.m. EDT, his wife, Marie, at his side.

Also with him was his son, Vincent Jr. of St. Paul, Minn. Lombardi, the only man in the history of the National Football League playoffs to win the three straight championships, had undergone two operations within a month in his battle with the disease.

Mrs. Lombardi had confirmed Wednesday the gravity of the ailment. She said the cancer was "extraordinarily virulent." His name became legendary for the feats he accomplished at Green Bay, a small city in Wisconsin.

His motto: "Winning isn't a big thing. It's the only thing." "He had a covenant with greatness, more than any man I have ever known," said Redskins President Edward Bennett Williams in a statement. "He was committed to excellence in everything he attempted. Because he was so committed, he was able to lead other men to commit and discipline themselves to reach heights of which they had never dreamed."

"Our country has lost one of its great men. The world of sport has lost its first citizen. The Washington Redskins have lost their leader. I personally have lost a beloved friend."

Bill Austin, interim Redskins coach, added in a statement: "Words are inadequate to express my deep sorrow and regret at the passing of Coach Vince Lombardi, a great leader and a greater man."

The New York native arrived in Green Bay in 1959, one year after the Packers posted its worst record, 1-10-1. He forged a 7-5 season his first year, won the divisional championship in 1960, and then proceeded to capture NFL titles in 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967.

His Packers won the first two Super Bowls which pitted the NFL against the AFL. Lombardi retired from coaching in 1968 to serve as general manager of the Packers but he was later to describe the one year off the field as the most miserable of his life.

He came to the Washington Redskins in February 1969 as head coach, general manager, executive vice president and part owner—the latter post, he said, one of the prime reasons for switching from Green Bay.

In his initial season, he posted a 7-5-2 record to give the Redskins their first winning season in 14 years.

His 10-year coaching record was 96 victories, 34 losses and 6 ties. Only Los Angeles Rams coach George Allen, with a record of 40-13-3, had a better winning percentage — .755 to .738.

Soviets, U.S. in Gold Medal Race

TURIN, Italy (AP) — The Soviet Union, with 12 gold medals at stake today in the World University Games, moved into striking range of the United States that leads the team standings, 19 titles to 15 for the Soviets.

The Soviets picked up six golds on Wednesday, while the Americans got none and their 10-medal margin was cut to four.

Cubs, Mets Closing in on 1st Place

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs and New York Mets have started taking a positive approach to the National League's East Division race, a most unhealthy situation for the Pittsburgh Pirates, who are still in a negative rut.

The Cubs and Mets both closed in on the first place Pirates by winning Wednesday while Montreal was tagging Pittsburgh with its seventh loss in the last eight starts.

Chicago exploded for a 17-2 romp over Philadelphia and moved within one game of the lead. The Cubs have won four of the last five.

The second place Mets won their third straight over St. Louis with Tom Seaver ending a personal four-game losing streak 7-3. That moved New York within one-half game of the top.

The Pirates, meanwhile, frittered away a five-run lead, battled back to tie the score on Bob Robertson's pinch homer with two out in the ninth and finally bowed to Montreal 10-7 when John Boccabella unloaded a three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

In other National League action, Atlanta topped Los Angeles 4-3, Cincinnati shut out San Francisco 2-0 and Houston shaded San Diego 2-1.

In the American League, New York nipped Baltimore 3-2, Washington tripped Cleveland 4-1, Detroit split a doubleheader with Boston, winning 6-4 before losing 10-1, Oakland topped Chicago 2-1 and California topped Kansas City 3-1. Minnesota's game at Milwaukee was rained out.

Joe Pepitone and Randy Hundley both potted three-run homers and Cleon James and pitcher Milt Pappas also connected as the Cubs routed Philadelphia.

Pappas worked eight innings and ran his record to 11-6. He is 9-4 since coming over to the Cubs from Atlanta. Pepitone's homer was his 21st—seventh for Chicago after being unloaded by Houston.

Don Clendenon and Cleon Jones drove in two runs apiece and the Mets, usually stingy with runs when Seaver is pitching, gave their ace right-hander plenty of offense to work with against St. Louis.

Clendenon, Jones, Joe Foy and Tommie Agee had two hits each, pacing an 11-hit Met attack against four Cardinal pitchers.

Gene Alley walloped an inside-the-park grand slam homer to highlight a six-run Pittsburgh rally in the sixth inning, wiping out Montreal's early lead.

But the Expos battled back, picking up two runs in the bottom of the sixth and then busting loose for four more to take the lead with two out in the eighth. Boots Day's double and a single by Bobby Wine were the big hits in that rally.

The first two Pirates went quietly in the ninth but Robertson tied the score with his pinch homer. Then in the bottom of the ninth reliever Joe Gibbon walked two men and Bruce Davidson came on to face Boccabella, who tagged his fifth homer of the year.

Hal King's first inning grand slam accounted for all of Atlanta's runs and the Braves ended a six-game losing streak by whipping Los Angeles.

Ageless Hoyt Wilhelm earned the victory with six scoreless innings of relief after the Dodgers kayoed Jim Nash with five consecutive hits including Tom Haller's three-run homer in the fourth inning.

Gary Nolan used last-out help from Wayne Granger to nail down a three-hitter as Cincinnati ended San Francisco's five-game winning streak.

Nolan, 16-5, drove in both Reds' runs with an infield single and a sacrifice fly as Cincinnati beat Juan Marichal, 9-9, and ended the Giant ace's personal six-game winning streak.

Jimmy Wynn's two-run homer in the first inning was enough to carry Houston past San Diego.

Wade Blasingame earned his third victory with Fred Gladding coming in the ninth to wrap up the victory after Ollie Brown had homered for the Padres.

White also operating behind a solid line that includes center John Schmitt, guards Dave Hermand and Randy Rasmussen and tackles Winston Hill and either Roger Finnie or Dave Foley.

Timothy T Captures Hambletonian

By DU QUOIN, III. (AP) —

Timothy T overcame an allergy and the challenge of a new acquaintance to make John Simpson Jr., 27, the youngest harness driver ever to win the Hambletonian Trotting Stake Wednesday.

The brown colt's triumph in the Du Quoin State Fair trotting classic marked the first time the offspring of a winning Hambletonian team had duplicated the success.

Timothy T's sire, Ayres, won the 1964 Hambletonian with John Simpson's father, John Sr., in the sulky. They had an easier time of it, taking heats in a row with times of 1:56 4-5 and 1:58 1-5. Ayres' fastest time is still the race record. Timothy T had to go three heats. His winning times were 2:00 1-5 and 2:00 3-5. Between his triumphs, little-known Formal Nought streaked to a 1:58 2-5 victory.

In the few days before the race, Timothy T, a 5-2 favorite, had been troubled with a cough. Young Simpson said the problem was diagnosed as an allergy caused by "hot hat, pollen dust, who knows?"

"He was as good today as he's ever been," John Jr. insisted after Wednesday's victory.

The senior Simpson, who owns Timothy and once trained and drove the horse, was not critical of his son's driving after the second heat loss, and was still confident the colt could win.

Young Simpson said he had never seen Formal Notice before Wednesday's race. He was "very impressed" with the Kimberley Kid offspring in the first heat, and "had even more respect" for the 8-1 shot after the second, he said.

"We just couldn't go enough to beat the winner the third heat," driver Jimmy Arthur said of Formal Notice. "He'd never even been two heats before so he didn't figure to be too strong. . . finishing second with as little racing under his belt is a tremendous accomplishment."

Prior to the Hambletonian, Formal Notice, owned by Allwood Stable of Far Hills, N.J., had started but seven times and had one victory, one second and three thirds for total earnings of $6,682. His second place in the Hambletonian summary (5-1-2) was worth $35,907.50.

Timothy T's triumph (1-2-1) paid $71,815 from a purse of $143,630, the largest in Hambletonian history and the most in a single harness race this year.

Simpson is the youngest driver to win the Hambletonian since Harry Harvey, 29, drove helicopter to victory in 1953.

Third place Wednesday went to Flower Child and Hugh Parshall (2-5-8) and was worth $17,236.60. Speedy Spin and Frank Ervin (4-3-3) won fourth and $11,490.40. Victory Star and Vernon Dancer (3-7-6) earned fifth money, $7,181.50.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A football forecaster, beginning a new season, is renewed.

The failures of last fall have dimmed during the past nine months. Only the successful predictions are remembered.

So, the fearless forecaster plunges into the new season with eager anticipation.

Little Rock Hall, the favorite in Class AAAA, opens its season against Little Rock Parkview. Parkview should be a warmup for the talent-rich Warriors. Little Rock Hall 28, Little Rock Parkview 7.

Springdale is the favorite in Class AAA-West and Rogers should be one of the best teams in AA. Springdale will have to work for this one. Springdale 14, Rogers 13.

Bobby Hannon, former assistant at Little Rock Central, has been hired to produce a winner at Hot Springs. Malvern was 4-8 last year, but the Leopards aren't likely to stay down long. This could be one of the best games of the week and the home field may be the difference. Malvern 14, Hot Springs 10.

Here are other predictions from Class AAAA, AAA and AA:

Fort Smith Northside 21, Van Buren 7, Little Rock Catholic 20, Little Rock Mann 13, North Little Rock 13, Fort Smith Southside 7, NLR Northeast 14, Benton 10, Blytheville 13, Helena 7, Forrest City 14, Little Rock McClellan 12, Jacksonville 20, Sylvan Hills 7, Jonesboro 19, Batesville 6, West Memphis 13, Marianna 7, Fayetteville 20, Bentonville 7.

Clay Defeats Three in Exhibition

ATLANTA (AP) — Cassius Clay is back.

The former heavyweight champion, returning to the ring for the first time in more than three years, breezed through eight exhibition rounds Wednesday night and soundly defeated three opponents in the process.

"I came here expecting to see nothing and I saw it all," said Clay's trainer, Angelo Dundee of Miami, Fla. "All the bricks are in place; it's all there to work on and nothing is missing."

"His legs were perfect; his timing was there, it was beautiful. He's just amazing."

Clay, although 10 pounds above his last fighting weight of 211, was unmarked and only slightly winded as he defeated opponents Rufus Brasell of Lima, Ohio, Johnny Hudgins of Miami, Fla., and George Hill of Philadelphia, Pa. There were no knockdowns.

"I got a little tired out there, but I was satisfied to last eight rounds and be about 80 per cent active all the way through," Clay said. "I'm not in shape yet, but in eight weeks I'll come into the ring at 210 (pounds) and be ready."

Clay, who prefers to be called Muhammad Ali, was stripped of his title after being convicted on a federal charge of refusing induction into military service. His last bout was a three-round exhibition at Detroit, Mich., in June 1967 and his last title fight was in March the same year.

Dark devised a scheme, but as has happened so often with the best of plans, this one went awry and instead of picking up victory No. 20, McDowell came away with his ninth loss Wednesday night, dropping a 4-1 decision to the Washington Senators.

But the Indians' skipper has four more weeks to go in the season to think up more strategy and McDowell should have five more starts in quest of his goal.

The Senators however foiled Dark's strategy and used infield hits and batted plays to stop the Indians while Dick Bosman limited Cleveland to four hits.

McDowell walked Washington slugger Frank Howard three times intentionally, twice as a leadoff hitter. The second time, Howard moved to third on infield hits by Rick Reichardt and Aurelio Rodriguez and scored on a wild pitch.

"My job is to win ball games," Dark said. And Howard will prevent me from doing that."

In the sixth inning, McDowell moved to first base with two on and one out

Richardson First Black Razorback

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Asked how his ribs were injured by a pass-rusher last year, quarterback Joe Ferguson laughed, patted Jon Richardson on the back, and said, "This was my blocking back."

On the next question, the strong-armed Ferguson was asked if any receivers complained about the velocity of his passes, but Richardson answered just by raising his hand as a smile crept across his face.

The repartee is an example of how things have turned out for Richardson, an exemplary pioneer as the first black athlete ever on a football scholarship at the University of Arkansas.

"When I first came up here, I didn't know what to expect," said Richardson, a sophomore tailback. "The players were overcautious. Now, we joke a lot about blacks and whites."

Richardson, who scored 17 touchdowns as a senior at Little Rock Horace Mann, an all-Negro school, admits he was surprised when his coach informed him that the Razorbacks were interested.

"I never dreamed of going to Arkansas, because they'd never had any black athletes," Richardson said.

A trip to the Fayetteville campus sold Richardson on Arkansas.

"When I went down to Texas, I knew about a lot of the football players but I didn't get to meet them," Richardson said. "They put me in with a bunch of black cats running track. They were great guys, but I wouldn't be playing with them."

"Texas also told me I'd be their Jerry LeVias, that I'd break their barrier," Richardson said. "I don't think race entered into it at all at Arkansas."

"When I came up here (Fayetteville), a lot of the players came up to my room to tell about the football program," Richardson said.

Richardson, who runs the 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds, is expected to back up tailback Bill Burnett this fall and possibly handle kickoff returns. His credentials are impressive.

Many of his high school touchdowns were long runs. The first time he touched the ball in Razorback Stadium he fled 100 yards with a kickoff.

Richardson says there is one Negro organization on campus — Black Americans for Democracy.

"I went to two of their meetings and it was kind of funny. . . they kind of treated me like an outsider," Richardson said.

"I agree with some of the things they're doing, but I can't see protesting just to be doing something," Richardson said. He said that last year the organization discussed demonstrating during a football game. "I told them the football team did not have anything to do with the problem."

"They're knocking the system," Richardson said. "I knew what the system was before I came up here. I didn't come up here to change the U of A I came to get an education."

$100,000 Hartford Open Begins

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Frank Beard, Dave Hill and Lee Trevino, all of whom have had their troubles recently, are among the favorites in a wide-open field assembled for the $100,000 Greater Hartford Open Golf Tournament.

The 72-hole test starts Friday, to allow for a final round on Labor Day, with many of the game's premier stars among the missing.

Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper and U.S. Open titleholder Tony Jacklin are taking some time off before their date in the World Series of Golf next week.

Arnold Palmer plans only two or three more appearances this year. Gary Player has returned to South Africa. Australian threats Bruce Crampton and Bruce Devlin are idle. Bobby Nichols, winner of last week's $300,000 Dow Jones Open, probably won't play again this season.

With all of those out, there are a flock of prime contenders for the $20,000 first prize with Beard, Hill and Trevino among the top performers. All have won more than $100,000 this year.

All had problems at the Dow Jones, however. Trevino missed the cut for the final two rounds for the first time this year. Beard also missed. And Hill was disqualified and fined after failing to sign his card for the second round. He wouldn't have made it in any event.

"I'm hitting the ball pretty good," said Hill, who lost to Bob Lunn in a playoff for this title a year ago. "But I'm just not putting it all. If I can make some putts, I'll be okay."

Lunn is on hand to defend his title and ranks as a threat along with Labron Harris and veteran Dan Sikes, who finished second and third to Nichols last week.

Among the 1972 tour winners competing are PGA champion Dave Stockton, Tommy Aaron, Romero Blancas, Pete Brown, Dale Douglass, Mike Hill, Dick Lotz and Bert Yancey.

'70 Year of Quarterback in Far West

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
A year ago, Southern California's Trojans beat Stanford by two points and UCLA by two points and the sum of four points over their toughest Pacific-8 rivals put USC into the Rose Bowl a fourth straight time.

For 1970, the Trojans have their backfield returning intact, some other fine offensive performers and a defense which had to be rebuilt around Charlie Weaver and Tody Smith, the returnees from the "Wild Bunch" front line which made life miserable for opposing quarterbacks.

Now they go into a season many believe will be the year of the quarterback all around. USC has Jimmy Jones, UCLA has Dennis Durnit and Stanford has Jim Plunkett, the second team All American selection of 1969.

Jerry Frei, the coach at Oregon, observed, "It looks as if everybody is going to have a great offense. There are more quarterbacks and running backs returning than I've seen in a while. But, the championship could wind up going to the team with the best defense."

Coach John McKay of USC cuts the line a little finer, saying, "If you don't play pass defense, you're going to get beat."

What's true in the Pacific-8 also is true in the Western Athletic Conference.

Arizona State, 8-2 in 1969, has its quarterback, Joe Spagnola, returning. Arizona has Brian Linstrom who set conference sophomore total offense and passing records last year. Wyoming has Gary Fox and Ed Synakowski, who alternated a year ago. Utah has Gordon "Scooter" Longmire, a transfer from Michigan State.

The Sun Devils of Arizona State won the conference title last year when they played one more conference game than Utah which also had an 8-2 overall mark and which also lost but one WAC game.

Sports writers and sportscasters in the Rocky Mountain area tabbed Arizona State to repeat as champion with Utah second, Arizona third and Wyoming fourth.

Southern California will be hard pressed to retain its "Best in the West" title. The Trojans must nevertheless figure high in the national ratings. They placed third in The Associated Press poll of a year ago.

In addition to Jones, they have flanker Bobby Chandler, fullback Charlie Evans and tailback Clarence Davis returning. From the frosh, they have fullback Sam Cunningham, tailback Rod McNeill and quarterback Mike Rae.

Weaver, at 214 and 6 foot 2, leads the Trojans' defensive charge and could be the Trojans' No. 1 candidate for post-season honors.

Stanford's bid to halt the dominance of the Los Angeles teams rests with Plunkett, a 6-foot 3 senior weighing 204. A year ago, he completed 197 passes in 336 attempts for 2,373 yards and 20 touchdowns.

He added 113 yards rushing for 2,786 total offense and the totals for passing yardage, touchdowns and total offense all were Pac-8 records.

What Coach John Ralston can assemble defensively could prove another major factor in the destinies of the Indians.

At UCLA, where the Bruins came from a dismal 1968 season to finish 8-1-1, Coach Tommy Prothro has 22 lettermen but only six starters from 1969. An injury forced fullback Mickey Cureton out for the season and may have ended his career.

At Oregon, Frei has 14 starters back and Oregon State has 31 lettermen and no one takes either lightly this time around. Running back Bobby Moore could be the Oregon standout while Dee Andrus at Oregon States fields a predominately junior team.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, Printed by Offset

Sophomore running back Isaac Curtis, a 9.3 sprinter, could make a big difference at California while at Washington and Washington State, they are 15 and 13 starters returning, respectively.

The Pacific Coast Athletic Association, which came into being a year ago, could have a rugged battle with San Diego State and Long Beach State in the favored positions. The latter has Little All America Leon Burns, the leading collegiate rusher of 1969, spearheading the attack.

In the Big Sky Conference, Montana seeks to defend its championship but like runner-up Weber State, the Grizzlies must find a lot of replacements for graduated seniors.

The Independent Air Force could again be a factor as Coach Ben Martin seeks to have another winning team.

Steve Vestal Moved to First Team

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Steve Vestal, a 5-11, 200 pound linebacker, was moved to the first team at strong side linebacker by Arkansas Razorback coaches Wednesday.

Vestal scored high grades on glims from scrimmages Saturday and Tuesday. He replaces Johnnie Jones in the starting lineup.

Vestal had been at middle linebacker on the second team behind Guy Parker. Vestal saw limited action last fall.

Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said Wednesday he hoped to end two-day practice sessions soon, but his assistants want to keep working twice daily in preparation for the season opener Sept. 12 against Stanford.

Weekend Golfer Has Tourney Lead

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Lanny Wadkins, who became a weekend golfer for something to do, slid through the Waverley Country Club course as smoothly as his southern draw for a 3-under-par 67 Wednesday and a one-stroke lead in the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Wadkins, 20, a junior at Wake Forest, reeled off three birdies and never a bogey during his 34-33 round. He held a one-stroke lead over Gary Sanders, 20, of Buena Park, Calif., as the tournament moved into the second round today on the 6,496-yard course.

"My father played weekend golf and I got interested in it," the fair-haired Richmond, Va., resident said. "It was something to do besides play baseball and I just kept getting more interested in it."

Packed at 1-under-par 69s were five amateurs including Gary Cowan of Kitchener, Ont., the 1966 champ, and James Simons of Butler, Pa., like Wadkins a junior at Wake Forest.

Defending champion Steve Melnyk of Jacksonville, Fla., was four strokes behind Wadkins at 71.

The field of 150 will be cut after today's round to the low 60s and ties. The tournament ends Saturday.

ASU Has 1st Scrimmage

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas State University Indians scrimmaged for the first time this fall Wednesday and Coach Bennie Ellender said he was impressed with his team's performance.

"There was good hitting and a lot of spirit," Ellender said. Ellender said he was particularly pleased with the passing game.

"We've got a lot of work to

Tie Break Scoring in Controversy

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Favored Rod Laver of Australia and the main American hope, Arthur Ashe, Jr., launch their bids in the mod U.S. Open Tennis Championships today—and it looks as if the sudden-death scoring system is here to stay.

"The tie break doesn't suit my particular game but I'm for it," said big, craggy Owen Davidson, the Australian left-hander who serves as head pro at Wimbledon, after losing his match to Spain's Manuel Santana in an exciting first round match that had three tie breaks.

"It's good for the fans," he added. "I wouldn't be at all surprised if Wimbledon also should adopt it. They won't be pressured into it, but I don't think Wimbledon would play one set of rules with the rest of the world playing another."

Controversy over the tie break, tried in this tournament for the first time in 89 years, featured first round play Wednesday—action that saw elimination of two seeded players, Andres Gimeno of Spain and Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., withdrawal of 13th seeded Ilie Nastase of Romania and default of several top foreign players.

The left-handed Laver, who has won more than $130,000 in winning nine tournaments, opens defense of his title against Allan Stone of Australia. Second-seeded John Newcombe of Australia plays Joaquin Loyo Mayo of Mexico and Ashe, seeded seventh, faces Bill Bowrey of Australia, who beat him in a Davis Cup match at Adelaide, Australia, in 1968.

All the first round matches in the women's division also will be played, with Margaret Court starting her bid for a grand slam against Pam Austin of Rolling Hills, Calif.

In the featured stadium match Wednesday, Santana, longtime Spanish Davis Cup ace, ousted Davidson, 6-7, 7-6, 6-7, 6-3, 6-4. The first three sets went into sudden death after the first 39 games were played without a service break.

"If it hadn't been for the tie break, they'd still be playing," said one spectator, part of the crowd of 10,200, which seemed entranced with tennis' new look.

"I like it," said Santana. "I would be in favor of it even if I lost."

A dissenting vote came from 42-year-old Pancho Gonzales, who also won a center court match when Ingo Buding of West Germany, complaining of illness, walked off the court with Gonzales ahead 6-2, 7-5, 1-0.

"Sudden death is no break for me," said Pancho. "It's tough on us older players. You have to go flat out for those nine points. We older fellows have to pace ourselves."

Gonzales' negative vote was canceled by big Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., who defeated his Davis Cup doubles partner, Bobby Lutz, 1-6, 7-6, 6-1, 6-4. A great return by Smith on the ninth point of the second game sudden death turned the tide of the match.

"It's a good scoring system," argued Smith. "It puts pressure on the players, and pressure has the name of the game."

Brazil's Tomas Koch scored the day's major upset in beating sixth-seeded Andres Gimeno of Spain 6-3, 6-4, 6-3.

The other seeded player to fall was 17th-seeded Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., beaten by Jean Baptiste Chantreau of France, 2-6, 7-5, 1-6, 6-4, 6-0.

do yet, but I think we have the right frame of mind," he added.

Casanova: New LSU Superstar?

By JERRY ESTILL
Associated Press Sports Writer
BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Louisiana State had one of the nation's best football teams last year but lacked the superstar that could have made LSU more glamorous.

Coach Charlie McClendon hopes to rectify that situation this year with a speedy halfback who has a vicious running style that may make LSU followers forget other great running backs in the school's history—Tommy Casanova.

He played a major role as a sophomore in helping the Tigers to a 9-1 record last year but it was primarily a defensive role.

McClendon switched the tough 190-pounder to offense this year. Some LSU fans claimed the move was more to help Casanova than the team.

"What's good for Casanova is good for LSU," countered McClendon. "I think the move will be good for the boy and good for the team."

McClendon acknowledged that a defensive back—no matter how good—just can't ring the publicity bell like an offensive backfield star.

And publicity for an individual star can't hurt a team, especially if that team prefers a bowl invitation to sitting home and watching lesser teams get the post season goodies as LSU did last year.

McClendon's 1969 team probably was his best in eight years at LSU. The 1970 version could be as good and still not equal last year's record.

The first half of the schedule is so so, but LSU catches Auburn, Alabama, Notre Dame and Mississippi in the second half, along with Tulane, which shows signs of becoming a formidable independent power this year.

McClendon says the key to whether the 1970 Tigers can produce another winner is the offensive line. LSU scored touchdowns 36 of the 38 times they got inside the 10-yard line last year, proof that the line knew how to block.

There's a letterman back at each position across the line. "We have some kids who have played, but can they produce?" is the question bothering McClendon.

The top prospects are guard Mike Demarie, a junior guard, and Mike Wright, a 6-foot-4, 225-pound senior tackle who could put on a few more pounds and be the bulwark of the interior offensive line.

Other front runners are 260 pound tackle Glenn Alexander, center Jack Jaubert and tight end Randy Tomes.

Sam Baker Dropped by Philadelphia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sam Baker has been kicking around the National Football League since 1953. Now he's been given the boot.

The 39-year-old veteran from Nebraska, No. 2 scorer in NFL history with 977 points, was cut Wednesday by Philadelphia as the Eagles and the rest of the teams continued trimming their rosters.

The Eagles' action was more of a wholesale chop as eight players felt the axe, including running back Harry Wilson, their No. 3 draft choice in 1967 whose pro career has been hampered by injuries.

Several veterans also found new homes after being put on waivers.

Defensive tackle Jim Weatherwax of the Green Bay Packers was acquired by the St. Louis Cardinals and the Minnesota Vikings, still without No. 1 quarterback Joe Kapp, picked up Kent Nix from the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Buffalo Bills acquired veteran cornerback Alvin Mitchell from the Cleveland Browns for an undisclosed draft choice and obtained tight end Austin Denny from the Chicago Bears on waivers.

All-Star Game in Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—The American Basketball Association's 1971 all-star game has been awarded to Greensboro. It will be played Saturday, Jan. 23, in the Greensboro Coliseum, which is being enlarged to seat 15,500 for basketball.

Greensboro is one of the homes of the Carolina Cougars of the ABA, who also play home games in Charlotte and Raleigh, N.C.

Page Eight Yellville Trio on Verge of Stardom

By FRANCES MCCLELLAND
Baxter Bulletin
YELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Three refreshing new stars in the country-western music field stand on the threshold of the big time. Two of them are in grade school, and the third isn't even old enough to get in kindergarten.

They are Cousin Betsy (Donna Vargo, 14; Honest Abe (Andy Vargo, 9; and B-Flat (Danny Joe Vargo, 4), children of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Vargo of the Rainbow Springs Trout Farm near Yellville.

Donna and Andy have been playing on stage since 1967, beginning at Buffalo State Park with an amateur band of local musicians organized by their father.

The Vargos have appeared with some of the leading country-western stars including Jerry Lee Lewis here and in Springfield, Mo.; Hank Williams Jr., Loretta Lynn and Gary Van in Springfield, and Jeannie C. Riley at Dallas, Tex. They have also appeared on television shows in Springfield, Jonesboro, Little Rock and Dallas. They recently returned from the National Music Convention at Miami, Fla.

They are doing five shows five times a week this summer. On Tuesday and Thursday nights, they have their own show at Horseshoe Bend, and they play regularly at an outdoor stage at the Vargos' trout farm.

The children spend two hours each day in practice, which is directed by their dad. "They're out to be professionals and they know that takes practice," he says.

Donna plays the guitar and banjo and does most of the singing, although she also plays harmony when Andy takes over the lead. She belts out songs in the traditional country-western style, but her voice is sweet and plaintive when she sings a sad folk ballad. She is a perceptive musician who enjoys rock 'n' roll, modern and old-time country music, Spanish blue grass, folk music and just "good ole fancy pickin'."

Andy, who has been on stage since he was 5, plays both the flat-top and electric guitars, drums, fiddle, mandolin, and five-stringed banjo. One of his most crowd-awing feats is picking the mandolin while holding it behind his back.

Andy is the personification of rhythm—his fingers fly over the strings, and the tip of his boot toe taps out the time.

"He can pick the lead for any singer," his father says.

Andy played the part of Honest Abe Yokum, L'il Abner's young son, when the Vargo children were featured stars when the Rainbow Trout Farm at the opening of Dogpatch south of Harrison.

The youngest of the trio, Danny Joe, has been performing for about a year.

Danny Joe is also learning to play the drums and can dance "country style," or do a fine twist while Donna sings one of her favorites, "While Lot of Shakin'."

Last year the children appeared on the Tommy Trent Music Show at Little Rock and the Gene Williams Country Junction Show at Jonesboro. Then the family went to Texas where they appeared at Fort Worth, Llano, Waco, Terrell, Grand Prairie and at Dewey Groom's Longhorn Ballroom in Dallas.

Last year they were hired by Albert C. Gannaway Productions and made a dozen shows with such stars as Webb Pierce, Red Sovine, Marty Robbins, Claude Gray and Rita Faye for the Ozarkland Jamboree television musical series.

The youthful performers last fall would climb into the family station wagon once a week after school, and with their parents head for Little Rock, where they made television films from midnight to 4 a.m. They slept in the car going to Little Rock and then again on the way home.

"They were filming for Gannaway, who plans to use them on all his future productions of Ozarkland Jamboree, which is in the planning stages of becoming an ABC network show," Vargo said.

Jerry Lee Lewis, who invited the kids to appear with him on his show at the Shrine Mosque in Springfield, Mo., termed them "talentful." He invited them to Las Vegas with him last March, but the parents felt this

Johnson Is Pleased on Vietnam Plan

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson has been briefed on the situation in Southeast Asia by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, and a vice presidential spokesman indicated Johnson was pleased with what he heard.

Agnew spent nearly three hours with the former president at the LBJ Ranch near Johnson City, Tex., Wednesday evening before flying to Washington to end a 27,000-mile, five nation Asian journey.

Earlier in the day, Agnew addressed the American Legion convention in Portland, Ore.

"The President (Johnson) didn't indicate he was unhappy about anything," an Agnew spokesman said on the flight back to Washington. Newsweek was not permitted to cover the session at the LBJ Ranch.

Agnew, meanwhile, was quoted as saying "the experience accumulated by presidents of the United States is a precious commodity." He was expected to convey Johnson's reaction on the briefing to President Nixon.

The vice president plans to go Ocean City, Md., later today for a weekend rest before launching political campaigning next Thursday in Casper, Wyo.

Johnson, reportedly looking tanned and relaxed, greeted Agnew and other members of the vice president's party on arrival at the ranch airstrip after a flight from Bergstrom AFB near Austin.

After a 10 minute talk inside the main ranch house, Johnson and Agnew spent more than an hour driving about the ranch and discussing the impressions gathered by Agnew in South Korea, Nationalist China, Vietnam, Cambodia and Thailand.

Later, the two chatted with other members of the vice presidential party. Agnew's spokesman said the former president described the session as pleasant and cordial and Agnew agreed.

The visit to the ranch was delayed by Agnew's trip to Portland, Ore., an assignment Nixon handed him only late Tuesday when the President decided against going himself. No announcement of the Portland visit was made until minutes before Agnew took off Wednesday morning from El Toro Marine Air Station, California.

He called for "mutual respect and mutual forbearance" as the cornerstone of a civilized society, and said "the real advocates of peace" are those who seek accommodation rather than confrontation.

Some 300 antiwar demonstrators, chanting slogans and carrying placards, circled in front of the main entrance of Memorial Coliseum while Agnew spoke.

would take too much time from school.

Their music careers started on the Vargo trout farm near Yellville in 1966 when the whole family, except Danny Joe, who was only 5 months old, decided to learn to play music as a hobby. Andy was too small to reach the notes on a guitar so he started on a mandolin, and Donna learned to play rhythm guitar, and also became the group's singer and emcee.

Danny Joe is now learning chords on the mandolin.

Their father has been their teacher from the start, and there is certainly no "generation gap" in this family. He treats his children as adults, and they respond to his directions with alacrity and great confidence.

Happenings of Day in Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Safeway Stores, Inc., the nation's second largest grocery chain, has begun explaining to customers how to read the freshness codes on its products.

The campaign drew an immediate and hearty nod of approval from Virginia Knauer, the White House assistant for consumer affairs.

Opening a project which could spread to Safeway stores across the nation, the firm told newspapers readers in four states and the District of Columbia Wednesday how to determine the freshness of milk.

An advertisement said, for example, that "9-5" inscribed atop the carton means the milk shouldn't remain in the dairy case beyond Sept. 5.

Safeway Vice President Basil Winsted said succeeding ads will explain codes for other products. Meanwhile, he invited customers to ask store employees how to read the codes.

The ads are being carried initially in localities served by 250 stores in Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Knauer said that Safeway "should be commended for its educational efforts to teach consumers how to use the system." She urged other food manufacturers and retailers to follow suit.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Highway traffic may be somewhat lighter this Labor Day weekend than last year, when 612 persons were killed, says the National Transportation Safety Board.

Board Chairman John Reed said Wednesday that the fact that many schools already have opened, rather than waiting until the day after Labor Day, could help ease the congestion.

Reed passed along to motorists these tips to avoid fatigue:

—Remember that sun and exercise make for drowsy drivers.

—Plan to make extra rest stops—15 minutes in every two hours of driving, particularly on turnpikes.

—Take turns at the wheel when there are other drivers in your car.

—Don't beat the traffic by leaving after the rush—leave before the rush to beat fatigue.

—Make sure you as well as your car are in shape for the trip.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department says packages weighing more than five ounces no longer will be accepted for mailing to Israel.

A spokesman said Wednesday the policy is the result of airlines' refusal to accept the packages for fear they might contain bombs.

Dillard Wants Progressive YR Leader

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Tom Dillard, president of the Arkansas Young Republicans, said Wednesday that YR groups should campaign for a party chairman who would be progressive.

Dillard did not name the candidates for the office, but the tone of his remarks indicated he did not think Charles T. Bernard of Earle would be an acceptable chairman from the Young Republican viewpoint.

Bernard, who ran unsuccessfully in 1968 against Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., is considered generally to be a conservative.

Questioned later, Dillard would say only that "there is someone in the race who is not progressive."

Farm Committee Posts Voting Has Started

Hempstead County farmers are now receiving mail ballots for election of ASC community committees, announced H.B. Gilbert, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee. Marked ballots are to be put back in the mail or returned to the County ASCS Office by September 11.

In each of the seven ASC communities in the county, eligible farm voters will elect 3 committeemen and 2 alternate committeemen to serve for one year. ASC community committees aid the County ASC Committee in administering Government farm programs. The community committeemen also elect members and choose officers for the County ASC Committee.

In the community committee elections, voters may vote for up to three persons. The ASC Chairman said it is important that farmers know that they are to vote for only three because in the past they have voted for five candidates. Voters may select from the candidates listed on the ballot or may write in choices.

Mr. Gilbert pointed out that the elections are by secret ballot. He said, "When a voter has marked his ballot, he should fold it and seal it inside the plain envelope he received along with the ballot. He should put the plain envelope inside the envelope addressed to the County ASCS Office and seal that envelope."

"Then he should sign and date that outer envelope on the back. This is very important because his ballot cannot be counted unless he has signed and dated that outer envelope."

"This dual envelope system is for the voters' protection," the Chairman explained. "The plain envelope guarantees a secret ballot. The outer envelope insures that only eligible voters vote. Before the votes are counted, the plain envelopes are removed from the outer envelopes and shuffled to make it impossible to identify any individual ballot."

When ballot envelopes are received in the County ASCS Office, Mr. Gilbert said, they remain sealed and are deposited in a sealed ballot box immediately where they will remain until the County ASC Committee publicly counts the ballots on September 15, 1970 at 9:30 A.M. in the County ASCS Office.

Any farm owner, tenant, or sharecropper who is of legal age may vote if he has an interest in a farm and is eligible to participate in an ASCS program offered in his community.

Any person who believes he is an eligible voter but who has not received a ballot by September 5 should get in touch immediately with the County ASCS Office at P.O. Box 70 in the Federal Building in Hope in order to obtain a ballot.

No Violation by Senators Goldwater Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department has told Sen. Barry Goldwater it found no wrongdoing on the part of anti-war senators who raised nearly $500,000 to rally public support for legislation designed to end U.S. participation in the Indochina war.

In a letter to the Arizona Republican, Deputy Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst said the department was "unable to make a determination" that federal laws were violated in raising and spending the money.

Goldwater, who asked for a legal opinion on the propriety of fund-raising activities of the Committee To End The War, was not immediately available for comment.

Kleindienst, who was Goldwater's 1964 presidential campaign manager, said the department's investigation had turned up no evidence of wrongdoing "based on the facts that are available at this time."

A Justice Department spokesman read excerpts of the letter to a reporter but refused to release the full text.

Mrs. Cherry serves as a costumed hostess at the Governor's Palace, the colonial home of seven royal governors and the residence of Virginia's first two elected governors, Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson.

Defendant Suffers From Anxiety

By LINDA DEUTSCH
associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Defendant Susan Atkins says she has been in constant pain at the Sharon Tate murder trial. A doctor says it's probably just anxiety.

The judge, after listening to the defendant and the doctor Wednesday, said of Miss Atkins: "She's articulate, she's lucid and she's apparently perfectly healthy." He ordered the trial resumed.

Miss Atkins, 21, is one of three young women followers on trial with Charles M. Manson, 35, chieftain of a nomadic hippie-style "family," on charges of murder-conspiracy in the slayings of Miss Tate and six others.

Court was recessed Monday and Tuesday while Miss Atkins was hospitalized for tests and treatment of the pains which she said first occurred Friday. She was led into court Wednesday sobbing and clutching her side.

At midmorning she arose, breaking into testimony, and cried: "Get me out of here! I'm hurting bad!"

With tears streaming down her face, she told the judge: "your honor, if you don't get me out of this courtroom I'll start screaming ... I can't take it any longer." She was half-carried from court by two matrons.

Superior Court Judge Charles Older recessed court, summoned the doctor who had examined Miss Atkins, then ordered a hearing on her health.

At the hearing, Dr. Margaret McCarron, assistant medical director of the Los Angeles County-USC Medical Center, said she and other doctors examined Miss Atkins in the jail ward.

She said tests revealed only that Miss Atkins "was quite constipated." She was treated, and the problem was remedied, said the doctor.

Miss Arkansas' stop was only one of several during a busy day of touring in this history-rich section of Virginia. Donna and her chaperone, Mrs. Betty Fowler, visited several other buildings and activities in Williamsburg's Historic Area, Jamestown Island, site of the first permanent English settlement in America and the nearby Jamestown Festival Park, which commemorates the seventeenth century settlement. Upon her arrival in Williamsburg Miss Arkansas received a brass reproduction of an eighteenth-century key from Williamsburg's vice-mayor, Charles M. Hackett, as a symbol of welcome.

Miss Arkansas and Mrs. Fowler left Williamsburg Wednesday afternoon enroute to Atlantic City, N.J. and the Miss America Pageant later this month.

Two Missions to Moon Are Eliminated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The decision to eliminate two Apollo moon missions confronted the National Aeronautics and Space Administration with a series of readjustments today. Four lunar flights remain.

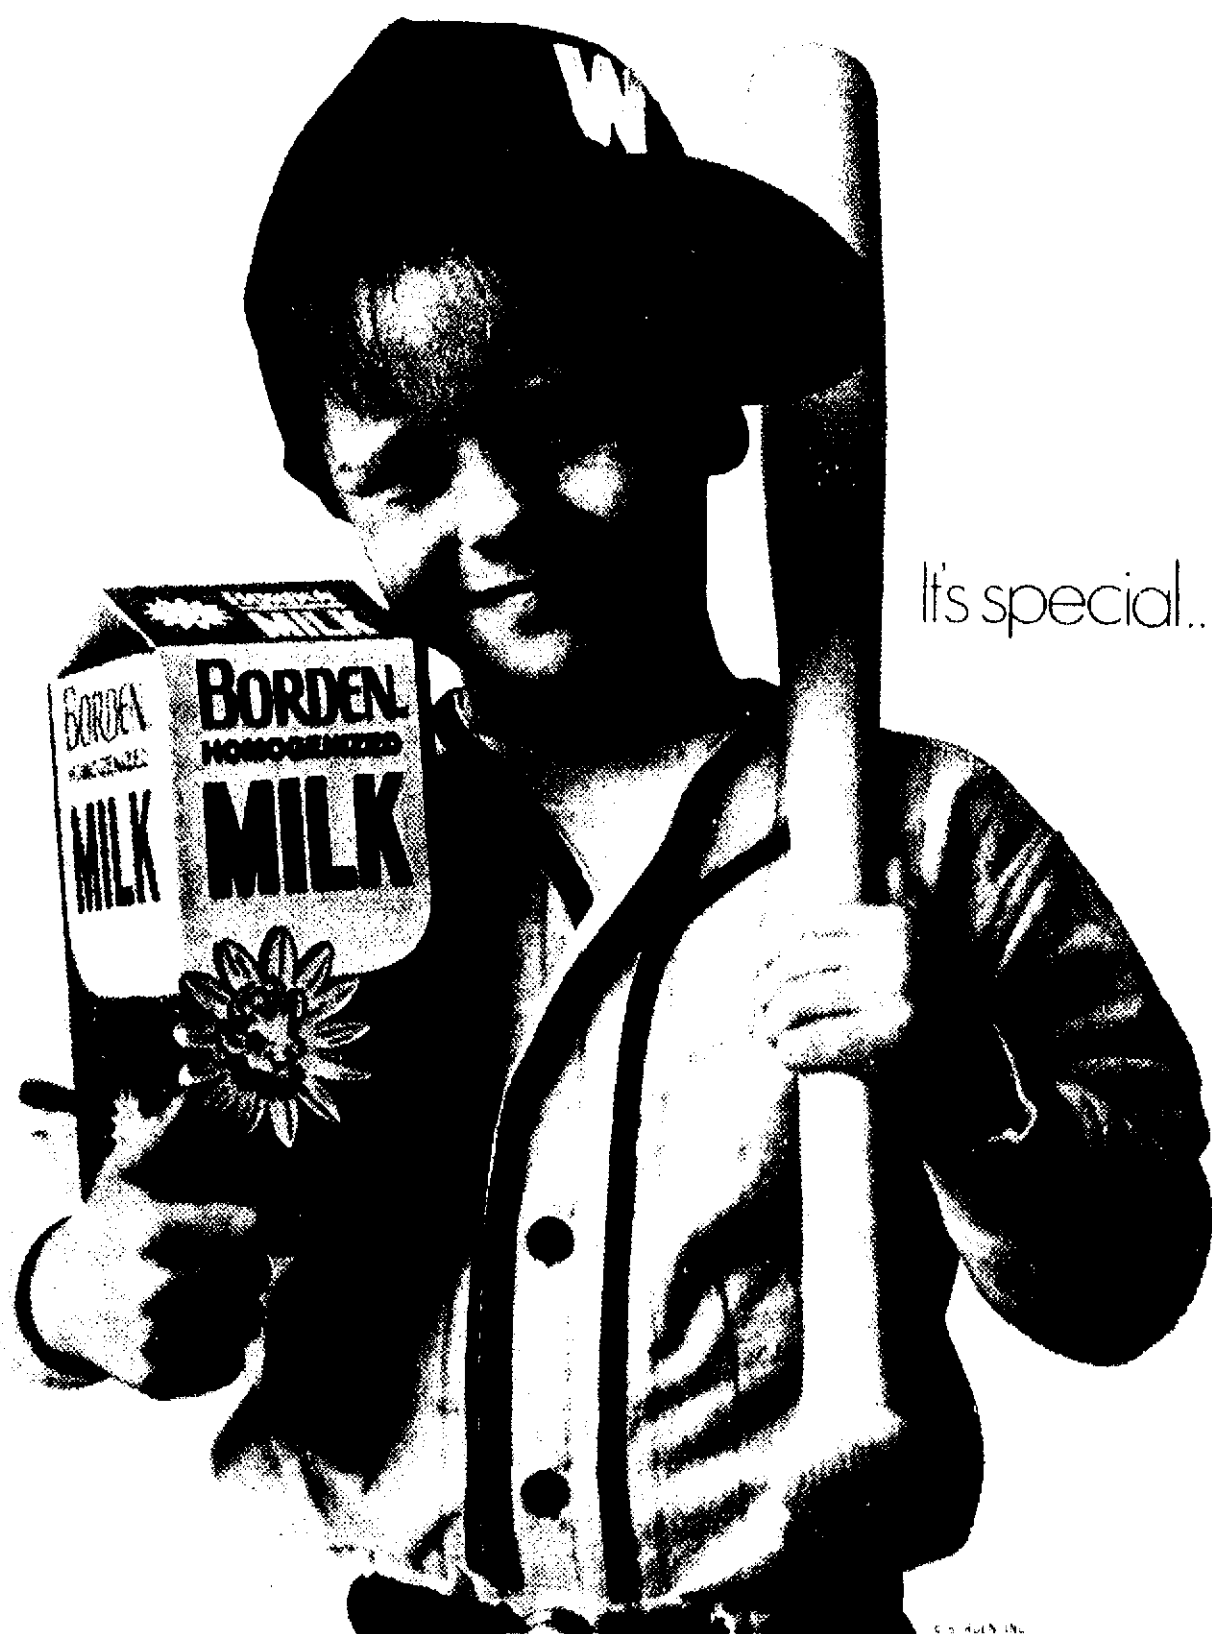

First, NASA will mothball a couple of giant Saturn 5 moon rockets.

These launch vehicles, costing $185 million each, will become a part of "a national resource of heavy lift rocket capability," NASA administrator Thomas O. Paine told a news conference Wednesday.

Secondly, some mighty disappointed astronauts—including six who would have taken a moon flight on the Apollo 15 and 19 missions, now cancelled for budgetary reason—will have to be reassigned.

"The astronauts have been very unhappy, along with the scientific community, about the reductions in flights over the past several years," said Dale Myers, associate administrator for manned space flight.

U.S., Canada Fishermen State Protest

SEATTLE (AP) — Hundreds of American and Canadian fishermen tied up their boats in Pacific Coast harbors for the weekend to protest Russian and Asiatic fishing along the continental shelf.

About 1,400 U.S. boats were idled at Washington and Oregon ports during the protest, which began Friday night. Another 400 pulled into Victoria, B.C. By Sunday most boats had gone to sea again however.

The commercial fishermen, including those in Alaska, contend that Russian, South Korean and Japanese vessels are operating within the territorial 12-mile limits of the United States and Canada.

American fishermen are backing the demand of their Canadian colleagues who want adoption of a 200-mile territorial limit.

Canadian Fisheries Minister Jack Davis met with a 16-member fishermen's delegation Saturday night in Victoria and said the fishermen would have an active role in negotiations with Soviet officials starting Sept. 21 in Ottawa.

Foreign nations involved say their fishermen take species such as hake that are ignored by Americans and Canadians. They also deny that territorial waters have been invaded.

However, American and Canadian fishermen contend Russian and Japanese fishing fleets have been harvesting salmon reared in North American waters.

Pro-government Slate Leads in Vietnam

By CARL ROBINSON
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — A moderately pro-government slate and one backed by the opposition An Quang Buddhist faction were leading today in first returns from South Vietnam's senatorial elections.

The three top 10-man tickets will win election, making up half of the 60-member senate. Sixteen slates made the race.

In first place was the pro-government ticket headed by Sen. Huynh Van Cao, a former general, with 708,607 votes. The An Quang ticket, headed by Vu Van Mau, had 629,288. In third place was the slate of Sen. Nguyen Van Huyen, the senate president, with 549,662 votes.

Despite more than 60 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese rocket and mortar attacks

Thursday, September 3, 1970 which killed 55 Vietnamese civilians and wounded 140, the government said 4.3 million votes were cast. That was two-thirds of the registered voters.

The An Quang faction boycotted the 1967 elections which brought in the present government of President Nguyen Van Thieu and the current senate.

Traditionally, the An Quang Buddhists have been militantly anti-government. In the campaign, the slate demanded "instant peace," and the abolition of "illiteracy, corruption, hunger, disunity, and dictatorship," which it said tends to encourage the growth of communism. Its leader, Vu Van Mau, was foreign minister under President Ngo Dinh Diem.

The favored Cao slate includes representatives of numerous religious and ethnic factions—men from the Hoa Hao and Cao Dai sects, a Montagnard mountain tribesman and a Cambodian. The Cambodian is the brother of Son Ngoc Thanh, leader of the anti-Sihanouk Khmer Serei movement.

63 Americans YIPPIES USE
(from Page One) (from Page One)

21 U.S. troops were reported killed between Dec. 19, 1965, and Feb. 19, 1966.

Last week's toll included only one of the 31 Americans killed in the helicopter crash south of Da Nang because only three of the bodies had been identified by midnight last Saturday.

Twelve more bodies have been identified this week and will be included in this week's toll, to be announced next Thursday, and the other 16 will be added to the total of the week in which they are identified.

The casualty summary also said 585 U.S. troops were wounded in action last week, a considerable increase over the 480 wounded two weeks ago.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 264 of its troops were killed last week, up slightly from 247 the week before, and 7 were wounded. The U.S. command said allied forces killed 1,284 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops, compared with 1,093 the week before.

Little fighting was reported in Vietnam or Cambodia, but American B52 bombers flew six days of saturation raids against North Vietnamese supply routes from Laos into Cambodia and South Vietnam.

From Phnom Penh, Associated Press correspondent John T. Wheeler reported that Cambodian troops launched a fresh counterattack to recapture the strict headquarters at Srang and found that the North Vietnamese force which captured it five days ago had folded up its elaborate defenses and withdrawn.

Three battalions of Cambodians assaulted the town, firing as they moved in, but ran into light opposition. Reports from the battleground 30 miles southwest of Phnom Penh indicated total government casualties in the five days of fighting were about 25 to 30 killed and twice that many seriously wounded. The Cambodian commander claimed 500 to 600 enemy killed or wounded but this was an estimate and probably highly inaccurate.

The U.S. Command in Saigon reported 28 enemy rocket and mortar attacks across South Vietnam, from 8 a.m. Wednesday to 8 a.m. today, with one American killed and 13 wounded.

Another seven Americans were killed and 28 wounded in scattered fighting, mostly trap literary agent said in a telephone interview. "Simon & Schuster (publishers of 'Do It') send over the proceeds, I take my fee off the top and forward the rest to the foundation's mailing address." Brandt would not divulge the address.

Rubin's lawyer, Abraham L. Wax, would say even less.

"Write me a letter," he told a reporter.

The foundation papers filed last year say the organization had assets of $2,000 when formed.

Rubin, convicted with four other members of the Chicago 7 in connection with the violent demonstrations in Chicago at the 1968 Democratic National Convention, could not be reached for elaboration.

Rep. William Scherle, R-Iowa, who first heard of the foundation, called it "a disgrace and an affront to the ordinary law-abiding citizens of this country that a man like Rubin should be granted a tax haven for the profits of his propaganda. The director of the IRS should revoke his tax exemption."

"We should not be forced to subsidize our own destruction with our own taxes," he said.

Peace Envoys Finally Get to Meet

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — America's new chief delegate to the Vietnam peace talks finally met North Vietnam's chief representative at the conference table today as Hanoi's Xuan Thuy ended a nine-month boycott.

Thuy told newsmen as he entered the 82nd weekly session he was "ready to listen" to U.S. ambassador David K. E. Bruce and "prepared to discern if there is anything new."

This contrasted sharply with the usual preconference statements from Thuy's deputies during his absence. They customarily announced they would "condemn the aggressive policy of the American imperialists."

incidents and the explosion of a Marine F4 fighter-bomber that caught fire while it was being refueled at Da Nang Air Base.

WR Suggests Candidates Just Withdraw

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who has secured the Republican nomination, facetiously offers a suggestion to the two Democratic gubernatorial runoff candidates: withdraw.

Each of the contestants — Dale Bumpers, 45, of Charleston and Orval E. Faubus, 60, of Harrison — insists that the other was put into the race by Rockefeller. The governor says the claims are nonsense.

But, with tongue in cheek, he added: "Since each of them says I put the other in the race at a lot of expense and nuisance value, I feel entitled to direct them to pull out and return the filing fees to me."

He laughed heartily.

Marion Burton, campaign director for Rockefeller, also viewed the issue with a sense of levity.

"I must observe that they're giving us credit for being effective rather than ineffective," Burton said with a chuckle.

Bumpers and Faubus, however, "have continuously given us credit for things we really had nothing to do with," he said.

One Republican administrator approached about the issue, responded quickly with a joke: "Actually, we put all eight of them into the race."

The latest chapter in the Democrats' who-is-beholden-to-Rockefeller saga turns out to be one of the most puzzling and is told here for the first time.

The developments involve four people who say they were together last Aug. 25, the date of the first primary, when a car adorned with Bumpers stickers drove out through the front gate of the Governor's Mansion.

The four, interviewed separately, agreed that the car bore signs backing Bumpers and that the incident could be completely without political import, but their stories disagree on almost all other points.

Faubus, contacted by a reporter, said he had heard that a Bumpers car, that it might support his charge of a tie between Bumpers and Rockefeller but that he did not know whether the mansion incident actually took place.

However, the interviews with the four people were undertaken by a newsmen at the suggestion of Robert Trout, a long-time Faubus supporter who now has a prominent role in the Faubus campaign.

The four were The Rev. R. J. Hampton of North Little Rock, Mrs. Pat Mann of Little Rock and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Parkhurst of Little Rock.

Hampton, 34, a Negro, ran unsuccessfully against Rockefeller with some financial help from Faubus backer Jess Odum of Little Rock. Mrs. Mann is employed by Hampton and, like the Parkhursts, worked in Hampton's campaign.

Hampton said the car was observed about 4:30 p.m.

Parkhurst and his wife, Dana, said the time was about 5 p.m. or later. Mrs. Mann picked 6 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Other conflicts appear: —The car was green in Hampton's recollection, gold in that of Mrs. Parkhurst's, and Maroon and white in her husband's memory.

—While the four agree that the car contained two males, Hampton says they looked to be about 40 or 50 years of age, Mrs. Mann said one was about 45 and the other about 30 and the Parkhursts said one was about 45 and the other a teenager.

—Parkhurst and his wife said Bumpers himself was in the car. Mrs. Mann said she wasn't sure but believed Bumpers was in the car and Hampton said he did not recognize either of the men.

—While Hampton doubts that Bumpers was even there, the Parkhursts said Bumpers was driving the car, and Mrs. Mann said the individual she believes been Bumpers was a passenger rather than the driver.

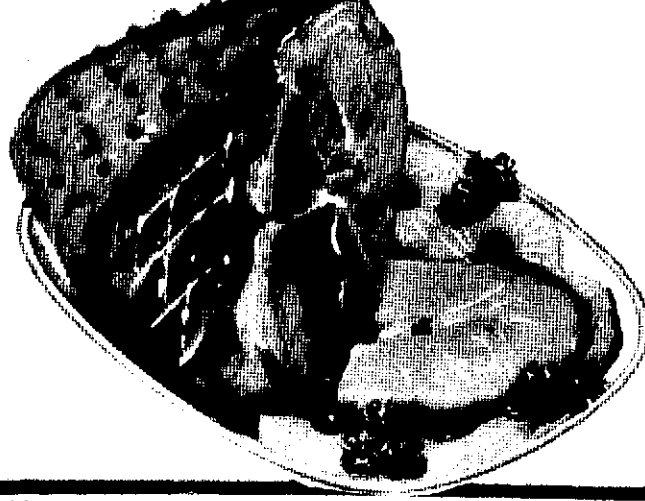

"I know this seems like a fairy tale, but this is the truth," Hampton said.

He said the group was shocked at the sight. None took down a license number, he said.

"I wished we had had a camera," he said.

The Bumpers campaign headquarters contacted about the report, said the candidate's car was at the mansion at that time, but without Bumpers.

Lag in Quantity, Lead in Quality

Observers of the world scene point out that the United States is being out-produced in the quantity of housing by most West European nations and that even Russia builds twice as many dwelling units per year as we do. Inflated costs of labor and materials with record-high interest rates have been a big factor in America's housing lag in recent years but even so, the quality of our new housing is vastly superior to that in foreign lands.

A spokesman for a homebuilding association offers some interesting facts and figures. For example, back in 1950 we produced about 16 new housing units per thousand population. Today we produce less than 6 per thousand population.

We are prevented from continuing to do as well as we have in the past because the housing industry is bearing 90 per cent of the burden. However, leaders in this industry are doing all within their power to meet the country's housing goals and they are dedicated to overcoming tough obstacles.

The United States is still the world's best housed nation. During the past 25 years we have nearly doubled our national housing supply and our homebuilding industry has the capability of continuing to improve America's housing so that we will continue to be the best housed folks on earth. — Jackson (Miss.) Clarion-Ledger

No Substitute For Work

A brief news item may help explain why it is so difficult to obtain repairs on a car or home appliance. It says, this country needs 50,000 more auto mechanics each year, but the actual net increase is only about 16,400. The figures are taken from findings of the U. S. Department of Labor. Another news report notes that college students with the highest academic degree — doctor of philosophy — are among the hardest hit by the shrinking job market. Demand for college graduates in many fields is declining, and one college placement official observes, "... young people are going to have to work a little bit harder."

After the millennium of a college education for everyone has been reached, the old virtues of willingness to work and common sense will find opportunities on every side — including the repairing of automobiles. — Williamson (W. Va.) Daily News

Food Poisoning Hits Forrest City School

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — About 50 children were treated at a Forrest City hospital Wednesday night for what was apparently food poisoning.

At least six of those treated were admitted to the hospital, and officials estimated that another 50 to 60 others have been treated at local clinics.

Officials said an investigation was underway to determine the cause of the apparent food poisoning. Since all of those stricken were children, it was thought that food from the cafeteria of a Forrest City school might have been the cause of the illness.

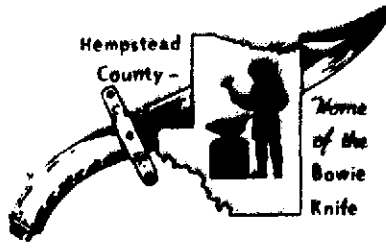

Hospital officials said late Wednesday night that more cases were still being brought in but none of the children appeared to be in serious condition.

Woman, 76, Killed by Log Truck

CABOT, Ark. (AP) — Ada Neeley, 76, of near Ward was killed Wednesday when struck by a logging truck on Arkansas 38 at Butlerville, eight miles east of Cabot.

State Police Trooper Mike Brannon said the woman was on foot when hit by the truck which was driven by Luther A. Burke, 53, of Van Buren.

A 15-year Weather Bureau study, beginning in 1953 when complete national records began to be kept, has drawn a tornado intensity map of the United States. Every state, including Alaska and Hawaii, has experienced the deadly storms but the tornado heartland is in Texas and the Plains states. The worst year on record was 1967 when 912 tornadoes in 44 states killed 116 persons and caused millions of dollars in property damage.

Huge Crowd Expected to Greet Nixon

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — A big parade, pickets and a crowd of 100,000 are expected to greet President Nixon and Mexican President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz in this seaside city today.

The two presidents and 700 VIP guests, including former President Lyndon B. Johnson, were gathered for a White House-style state dinner tonight in a display of Mexican-American friendship.

Decorations, bleachers and welcoming signs were up and 65 marching units were poised for the parade, along with beauty queens and horse riders.

City officials have been working hard to make this a warm welcome with a big turnout and all the ceremonial trappings to celebrate California's bicentennial as well as the visit of the presidents.

Hundreds of free buses were put into service all over the county and down to the border town of Tijuana to bring visitors to this community of 18,000.

The normal 60-cent toll on the new $47 million Coronado Bay Bridge was cut to 10 cents for the parade. Mexican currency was being accepted for the first time on the span that links San Diego and the Coronado Peninsula.

Nixon's bubbletop limousine was brought in for his 1 1/2-mile motorcade, timed to follow the parade after nighttime arrival ceremonies at North Island Naval Air Station.

Yuppies Use Law They Seek to Destroy to Dodge Federal Taxes

By JEAN HELLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Yipie leader Jerry Rubin, using the laws of "the system" he seeks to destroy, has set up a tax-exempt foundation to shield a major portion of his income from federal tax collectors.

The foundation, called the Social Education Foundation and also known as the Jerry Rubin Fund, holds the copyright on Rubin's best-selling, revolution-preaching book, "Do It!" Proceeds from the book go to the foundation and are thereby protected from income tax assessments.

Among other things, the Rubin book calls on young people to leave their homes, burn their schools and create a new society.

Legal papers filed with the Internal Revenue Service say the foundation would, among other things, use its funds for "relief of the poor, distressed and underprivileged... Lessen the burdens of government... de-

Bumpers in Appeal to Democrats Who Gave Support to Rockefeller

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dale Bumpers of Charleston, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor spent Wednesday campaigning in South Arkansas.

At Crossett, he appealed for the support of Democrats who had supported Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

The 45-year-old lawyer faces former Gov. Orval Faubus in next Tuesday's Democratic runoff primary.

Referring to Democrats who had supported Rockefeller, Bumpers said, "They left the party because of Orval Faubus. I'm inviting them back."

At a gathering of about 100 to 150 persons at the Crossett airport, Bumpers was asked about recent verbal attacks by Faubus and said the "savage, slanderous attacks are what keep decent people out of politics."

At Magnolia, Bumpers said that Arkansas had been poor economically, but never poor in spirit and determination.

"What we have been poor in for the past 16 years is leadership," he said.

Bumpers said he felt his candidacy offered for the first time in many years the opportunity to get away from machine politics "whether it be political machine or money machine."

He had little to say about Faubus.

"I could sling mud all over the state but it wouldn't build me one ounce of support," Bumpers said. "I can't build myself by tearing another man down."

Bumpers spoke to a crowd of about 350 persons at the courthouse in Camden and said there would be no sectionalism if he is elected governor.

"The only priority will be to the sections which need help the most," he said.

Noting that transportation was a problem for Camden, Bumpers said he believed in the toll-road system and said the state was "not going anywhere until we have better highways."

He told the gathering he wanted to appeal to the best in people and not use divisive tactics "when we need to be unified."

He said he wanted to be the kind of leader who, when he sees a volatile situation, he doesn't throw a match on it.

Bumpers told the crowd that he wanted to be governor that "you don't have to apologize for." He said he believed "honesty, decency and dignity" still appeal to common sense and good judgment.

At El Dorado, Bumpers delivered basically the same speech he had used earlier, adding that he was opposed to busing public school children to achieve racial balance.

He said he sympathized with the parents of children who were being bused but said, "We must remain calm and cool in the face of crisis."

He said if elected he would introduce legislation to limit campaign spending.

Appearing on a question and answer program on an El Dorado television station, Bumpers said he would oppose a bill to abolish capital punishment.

He said the death penalty might act as a deterrent to some serious crimes.

Faubus spent most of the day Wednesday at his Little Rock home preparing another television speech that he was scheduled to tape for showing later this week.

Marijuana Found Near a School

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Sebastian County officials foiled the plans of a private entrepreneur Wednesday night when they discovered a field of marijuana growing near a school for handicapped children inside the Fort Smith city limits.

Authorities placed the value of the crop at $20,000. A guard was stationed at the field all night, and officials said that the plants would be destroyed.

Earlier in the day, another area of the city was discovered to have marijuana growing wild.

Police Chief Carl W. Beyer thought in passing through a residential neighborhood that he saw the plants. His suspicions were confirmed.

Residents of the area said they had no knowledge of the plants and city authorities speculated they were growing wild.

63 Americans Killed in Week of War

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Sixty-three Americans were killed in action last week in Vietnam, the U.S. command announced, but its total did not include 28 others killed when a helicopter was shot down last Wednesday.

The 63 dead were 11 more than the American battle death toll the week before. The command said American battlefield deaths for the past nine weeks total 623, the lowest for a nine-week period in 4 1/2 years—since

Off-probed Union Fund Is Benefitting From Housing Administration

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The Federal Housing Administration has made more than $30 million worth of transactions in the past two years involving a giant and off-investigated Teamsters Union pension fund.

The government official who approved the arrangements—including one of the largest loan guarantees ever made by the FHA—since has become president of a subsidiary of a corporation partly owned by the pension fund.

The transactions, all involving the FHA's San Diego office, came to light during an Associated Press investigation. The FHA in Washington says it does not believe it knew at the time of the transactions that they involved the Teamsters Union's Central States, Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension Fund—the nation's largest labor-management pension fund.

The transactions include: —Insuring a $16 million land development loan to a company whose stock is held by the pension fund. The guarantee constitutes 70 per cent of an entire federal program. It is among the 25 largest guarantees ever made by FHA under any program, the agency said.

—Arranging at least $11.8 million in 3 per cent subsidized loans to San Diego corporations ultimately one-fifth owned by the pension fund.

—Insuring a $3.26 million loan at market interest rates for another such corporation.

This Teamsters' pension fund, commonly called the Central States fund, has been the subject of numerous government investigations.

Teamsters president James R. Hoffa was convicted of mail fraud in connection with Central States fund dealings. A federal grand jury is probing the fund's financing of a massive Los Angeles land development project. A lengthy series of federal court

U.S. Reportedly Tells Russia, Egypt to End Cease-fire Violations

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States reportedly today told the Soviet Union and Egypt to quit violating the Mideast standstill cease-fire agreement.

At the same time, U.S. officials were preparing a statement which would publicly acknowledge evidence of an anti-aircraft missile buildup on the Egyptian side of the Suez truce zone, contrary to the cease-fire terms.

The U.S. aim is to prevent the cease-fire from breaking down and to promote the lagging Arab-Israeli peace talks.

Instructions to make representations to the Soviets and the Egyptians against truce violations were said to have been sent from Washington Wednesday night to Ambassador Jacob Beam in Moscow and to Minister Donald Bergus in Cairo.

Assistant Secretary of State Joseph Sisco also met here late last night with Israeli Ambassador Yitzhak Rabin.

The Israelis, charging the Egyptians with cheating on the cease-fire deal, have kept their envoy to the U.S.-supervised peace talks home for a week while weighing what to do.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird gave U.S. reassurance at a news conference Wednesday that the United States will not allow the Mideast military balance to swing against Israel.

Laird also said U.S. arms shipments to Israel are continuing, and he indicated American willingness to supply Israel with replacements for F4 Phantoms that might be lost in future combat. A delivery of 50 Phantoms to Israel is just being completed.

The Israelis also were said to be pressing for a public U.S. statement admitting that intelligence has detected a buildup in Soviet-supplied missiles in the Egyptian truce zone.

SASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has reportedly told the Soviet Union and Egypt to quit violating the Mideast standstill cease-fire agreement. U.S. officials were preparing a statement which would publicly acknowledge evidence of an anti-aircraft missile buildup—contrary to the cease-fire terms—on the Egyptian side of the Suez truce zone.

TEL AVIV (AP) — Informed sources report that the Israeli government probably will boycott the Middle East peace talks at the United Nations until the U.S. takes a firm line supporting Israel's charges of Egyptian cease-fire violations.

PARIS (AP) — America's new chief delegate to the Vietnam peace talks has finally met North Vietnam's chief representative at the conference today, as Hanoi's Xuan Thuy ended a nine-month boycott. Sources say the talks have entered an "exploratory phase."

SAIGON (AP) — Sixty-three Americans have been listed as killed in action last week, but the total did not include 28 killed when a helicopter was shot down last Wednesday. These will be included in totals as they are identified.

Israel May Boycott Peace Talks

TEL AVIV (AP) — Informed sources reported today that the Israeli government probably will boycott the Middle East peace talks at the United Nations until the United States takes a firm line supporting Israel's charges of Egyptian cease-fire violations.

Premier Golda Meir and her Cabinet met again today to consider the question as Israel issued its ninth complaint charging more Egyptian movement of anti-aircraft missiles into the Suez Canal cease-fire zone.

The sources said continued abstention from negotiations would be aimed at appeasing Defense Minister Moshe Dayan, who some Israelis believe will quit the Cabinet if Ambassador Yosef Tekoah returns to the talks with U.N. envoy Gunnar V. Jarring before the United States gives public support to Israel's charges.

"The defense minister is not making it easy for Golda," wrote columnist Yoel Marcus in the newspaper Haaretz. "He has given to understand that this is for him a matter of principle, and that if his stand is not accepted he can no longer bear responsibility for defense policy."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Triplett have bought the Diamond Cafe. They moved here from the Dallas-Fort Worth area and have a farm at Shover Springs. Though the Triplets don't have triplets, they do have three children in high school and three in grade school. They are members of the First Baptist Church.

S. Sgt. David Sulzer was discharged from the army August 31 after 21 years, including service in Korea and Vietnam. He, Mrs. Sulzer and their two children will move their mobile home from Mangum, Okla., this weekend to reside near his mother, Mrs. Edna Sulzer, Hwy. 55, south of Hope.

Spring Hill Methodist Church will hold its Homecoming Sunday, Sept. 6. All members and former members are urged to attend. The program starts at 11 a.m.

Joe Purcell Endorses Dale Bumpers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell endorsed Dale Bumpers today in Bumpers' runoff campaign against former Gov. Orval E. Faubus for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Purcell said in a statement at a news conference, "after having studied the platform of each candidate very carefully, I am convinced that Dale Bumpers more closely shares my views and convictions."

Purcell said he had conferred at length Tuesday with Bumpers, but declined to discuss with newsmen in any further detail his endorsement of the Charleston lawyer.

Purcell finished third in the eight-man preferential primary Aug. 25. Bumpers edged Purcell by more than 4,300 votes for the No. 2 position opposite Faubus on Tuesday's runoff ballot.

Purcell said in his statement that he felt a great sense of responsibility to continue to work for the teachers, educators, public officials and employees of counties and municipalities, as well as "the working people, the black and the white, the young and the old, the rich and the poor, the farmers and the businessmen."

"I am convinced that I can better discharge this responsibility by lending my support to Dale Bumpers in the runoff primary and then by helping him be elected governor on Nov. 3," the attorney general said.

He said his decision was based on "which of these two men (Bumpers and Faubus) will lead Arkansas in the right direction."

Purcell had not talked to newsmen since being eliminated from the race.

In declining to elaborate on his remarks, Purcell told newsmen, "At this time, by statement expresses my feelings."

He had no comment on what his activity would be in support of Bumpers.

Weather to Be More of the Same

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The U.S. Weather Bureau is predicting more rain for Arkansas through the next two days. The rain, which has fallen on the state Tuesday and Wednesday, is the result of a high pressure ridge extending from Florida to Texas.

The forecast is for continued warm and humid weather.

The high today and Friday will be in the 90s. The lows will be in the upper 60s and 70s.

Highs Wednesday ranged from 93 at Memphis to 75 at Fayetteville.

Overnight lows were Fayetteville, 64; Harrison, 65; Jonesboro, 72; Pine Bluff, 72; Texarkana, 74; El Dorado, 76; Little Rock, 71; Memphis, 75; and Fort Smith, 72.

Precipitation reported during the 24-hour period ending at 7:30 a.m. today included .63 of an inch of rain at Fayetteville; .74 at Harrison; .42 at Jonesboro; .25 at Pine Bluff; .30 at Texarkana; .31 at El Dorado; Memphis, a trace; .16 at Little Rock; and .01 at Fort Smith.

College Station Enrollment Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The enrollment at College Station Elementary School, which is being boycotted by some Negro residents of College Station, continued to increase Wednesday.

About 120 patrons of the College Station area voted Aug. 26 to boycott the school to protest a desegregation plan that would close the upper three grades of the school at mid-term and have the students in those grades in a predominantly white school.

The enrollment Wednesday was up to 146. Only 41 students reported for class Monday. The school had an expected enrollment of 500.
